The Question

I awoke today to hear a gentle word from the Holy Spirit. He said, “what kind of fruits are hanging from your tree?” The question continued to stay on my heart that morning as I arose and went about my day. Then, after contemplating my own fruits, He began to speak to me about a great deception in the body of Christ. I was seeing that many who say they are his and who seem to have 'powerful' gifts from the Holy Spirit are really lacking or in some cases completely 'barren' from the fruits of the Holy Spirit.

I began to see that some whom I had respected as men and women of God were not quite as endowed with power and endorsed with God's approval as I had once perceived. Something grossly apparent came into view....the fruits in their life weren't the right kind. I could not see it before as I was too emotional involved in the grand scope things and was blinded by their abilities. Now I clearly saw that the gifts that I thought they had used and honestly believed were from God were simply things our own spirits or the spirits of others can do and that these abilities were be used to lead people astray.

This article is written as a warning to anyone who thinks that their 'tricks' are a sign of God approving of their behavior. I can see that many are set to be deceived in these last days—sitting calmly on a sinking ship.

You will find that just because people can do spiritual things, it does not signify that that one is a servant of God/Truth. A true servant of God will be obedient to scripture. If they are not, then they are not God's Servants at all.

God commands us to forgive and love one another. We are told to never treat a person like any demonic presences that they may struggle against. We are told to love each other like Jesus loved us and to even lay down our very lives in their behalf. We are told that whatever we have done to His children we have done to Him and yet I stand here sort of dumbfounded as people that I had honestly once believed served God do not obey any of these things that He said. Not only that, but their gifts are always used to help themselves. I couldn't understand it for the longest time why they would say God showed them something about me but would never bother trying to help me at all what it was. Did God endow them with gifts and talk to them about me so they could edify themselves? The gifts of God are meant to be used in edifying the body of Christ, not to bolster your ego or give you more reason to look down at someone. Had I been more aware of God's own character I would have known better to would have understood what was going on.

I was horrified as I realized that without obedience to God's Word it meant only one thing. If they loved God and were of God, they would obey Him. They would obey the Word of God.

Arrogance is not a fruit of the Holy Spirit. To pretend that one is above another fellow Christian is both cruel to them and dangerous to you. I heard these words this morning after God showed me how dangerous it is to think that spirit ability means salvation, “warn them that are unruly”. We must become diligent to find and follow the truth or our houses will be broken into and overrun. Our spirits have abilities. To bank ones salvation upon ones abilities is risky business indeed! The real question is “what are you doing?” What are the fruits on your tree?

Here is a list of things that you can do if you practice REIKI which is a practice that has nothing to do with God:

- sense pain on someone elses body
- remote viewing
- use their spirit to heal
- telepathy
- remove negative energy
- send demons away

I have seen all of these things used by Christian people I once respected, but I no longer respect them until they respect God. How can you respect people who don't obey the scripture and see themselves above the words of Jesus?

Just be aware that not everyone who is saying, “Lord, Lord” is of God. People can fool you because glossolalia was spoken long before Christ came and there are demonic tongues. I discovered that demonic glossolalia often sounds more like bubbling but can be an earthly language as well. So you cannot use 'speaking in tongues' as a measure of a true man or woman of God

Do chills mean that God is with you? I came across people who use chills for answers when getting guidance from the unclean spirit that the knowingly entertained. One woman would lay on her bed and ask the spirit questions and get the guidance she needed through chills. Chills occur when your spirit is 'moved'. This can be felt when the Holy Spirit moves you or when 'any' spirit moves you. It is your spirit being moved by theirs that makes you feel chills and has 'nothing' to do with whether you are saved or not.

Another example of spirit ability that has come to mind as well is this one. When I was praying for a woman in a nursing home, the daughter of the elderly woman spoke to me one day and confessed she had also asked a Reiki master to help her as well. The Reiki master lived a long ways away. That Reiki master from miles away described several of the nurses that had access to the ill woman and spoke directly to the ill woman's spirit and sensed her pain and emotions. I was almost jealous! God had a point to make to me and He made it well. Don't fall for the tricks! Look at the fruit on the tree. Is real love there? Is forgiveness there? Is there respect for Christ/Truth and most importantly..... do they obey God? Do they falsely accuse you to elevate themselves? Are they afraid of you? What fruits are on their tree? Honesty? Patience? Kindness?

Respect of Him in you? Hospitality? Or are they cowardly, selfish, controlling, vindictive, rude, egotistical, cruel and standoffish? Do they obey God and serve Him or not? Sadly, there will be many who think they are God's just because they have done a few works in God's name and God is going to say to them, "I never knew you!"

The flesh is easy to spot in every single person as every person misses it on some level but to not treat people like you would like to be treated is a huge sign that something is wrong. To refuse to forgive, overlook, be patient, or kind and to use someone for self gain is not of the Holy Spirit and to not kindly rebuke someone when needed is also a sign of disobedience to God and adds you as an accomplice to the devils who are attacking someone's life.

God let me know that if a person was really His that there is no need to seek any kind of friendship. His Spirit will unite His children. We are kindred spirits and of the same flesh and blood; we are the body of Jesus. So if someone else claims to be a servant of God and hates you, you can be sure they are not God's child at all. What God showed me is that you must not let it bother you on a personal level. Whatever is, is....and there is no reason to struggle. Being of Him means you wait for God to work with every spirit. You move when He moves and you will know those who are His by the fruits on their tree. You cannot 'fake' the fruits. The closest thing a deceiver can do is limit the access that people have to his personal life so as to 'hide' his fruits. You see this a lot with bigger ministers. They get their deceptive ways from the same spirit that backs many politicians.

15 Beware of false prophets, which come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves. 16 Ye shall know them by their fruits. Do men gather grapes of thorns, or figs of thistles? 17 Even so every good tree bringeth forth good fruit; but a corrupt tree bringeth forth evil fruit. 18 A good tree cannot bring forth evil fruit, neither can a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit. 19 Every tree that bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire. 20 Wherefore by their fruits ye shall know them.

Matt 7:15-20 (KJV)

Look at what He says next:

21 Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven. 22 Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works? 23 And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity.

Matt 7:21-23 (KJV)

Only those people who actually are following God's will, will enter heaven. It doesn't matter how many tricks they have, how many demons they've cast out, or fancy tricks they have performed....are they obeying God? If not, they aren't his! No wonder you can't unite with them!

Fruits of the Holy Spirit:

22 But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith,
23 Meekness, temperance: against such there is no law. 24 And they that are Christ's have crucified the flesh with the affections and lusts. 25 If we live in the Spirit, let us also walk in the Spirit.

Gal 5:22-25 (KJV)

God's servants obey Him. He/she treats others like he wants to be treated. He is not arrogant, hateful, proud, and does not elevate himself above you. His/her life will exude and emanate the qualities of the Holy Spirit. God's Spirit is not the spirit of fear. God's Spirit is not powerful just so it can laud its own abilities and seek others to serve it. God doesn't get his kicks out of putting you down. God is patient and forgiving. He's not stand-off-ish arrogant and controlling. He longs to fellowship with you, enjoys your company, and loves you. He seeks the whole earth over for those who love Him. His servants will mirror His heart. Woe unto those who say, "Lord, Lord"....but don't really mean it. Woe unto those who use His holy name to build a name for themselves and their 'inner circle'. Woe unto those who set themselves as a king above the King.....who refuse to obey His words, who robs his fellow man of common decency!

Increasing Your Fruit

We are told to not 'quench' the Holy Spirit. You can put out the fire of God in your heart! This happens when you insult God's presence in you. How do you do that? You give ear to the 'other' voices and ignore Him.

When we are led astray it is always by our flesh and if you look at the people who aren't obeying God, those who are still sounding religious but their hearts are far removed, you will see that this is exactly what has happened to them.

Often you will see this in the twilight years of a persons life. Why? Because during their younger days they never gave up the idea of self glorification and never received the revelation that only God is Good and Worthy. Therefore, when they become old and feel themselves 'falling apart' their hearts get angry as they realize that no glory is 'ever' going to come their way. Until that point, they fully believed that God supported and loved their egos. This false belief will often cause some to fall in their old age.

You quench His Spirit when you douse it with a lie. You pick up the 'I'm so amazing look at me!' line and take a compliment from a devil and run with it like there's no tomorrow! Maybe the lie you bought was that you must provide for yourself or that you need someone to love you or perhaps that you have to make something out of yourself. All false beliefs bring grief and only pure revelation can free you from the wrong revelation and produce the fruit of the Holy Spirit in your life.

The Holy Spirit becomes quenched in your life when you turn a deaf ear to Him. It isn't that you hurt God's feelings per say. God is more like math. If you don't listen to Him, guess what? You can't hear Him! He has suddenly become 'quenched' as we tune in to other voices we would 'rather' hear and start birthing forth from them instead of God.

God's voice is sometimes challenging to hear when you are kind of humble but it is always hard to hear when you are full of pride. Having to hear that something went wrong because it was all your own idea based on self glory is not the easiest thing to swallow. Especially if you find yourself married to the wrong person for 20 years! What if discovered that you spent the last 15 years in the wrong job because you were greedy! These things aren't easy to face! Imagine discovering that you've spent thousands of dollars or many years getting where you are at and you realize that you are in the wrong place! These things are too hard for some to see and so we continue on in our blind path of doom. Now you see how stubborn old fools come into being.

Now, imagine you've spent all your money, all your time, and all your life in the wrong direction and you are nearly dead. How easy is it going to be for you to face the truth of what you have done? Imagine you've preached a lie your whole life and sank everything you had into it, offended every person who tried to tell you the truth, ran off your own children, and then about to die at any given moment.....how hard would it be to see what you have done? This is why many, many people miss heaven's gates. The first refusal to see the truth turns into 120,000th time of refusal and soon you are so lost and so confused that you can't remember what the truth even was and you hate any person who might remember it and remind you. You gather people to yourself who support your lie and call them your 'friends'. You change the truth to suit your lust and call it revelation. You look up to heaven and pray to your alter ego to save and honor your pride and God just shakes His head at you because your ears simply don't work and you are blind and lost.

Do you know what comes next? When people send themselves to hell they get mad at God. They hate Him! They fought their whole life to make Him disappear and it didn't work and they are faced with the truth that they ran from from the beginning....that there is only One God , only One who is Good.....and it was 'never' them. No glory was ever theirs. No good was ever in them that was from themselves. They cannot be god. This makes them hate God for being good. The only place they can run from the Truth from is into the darkness....they go to hell.

To increase the presence of Truth in your life, you must decrease in lies. This can only come through understanding. You must spend time with the Truth and He must reveal Himself to you. He will do this to 'all' who honestly call upon Him. What sadly happens to many people is that they are only paying lip service. They don't mean what they say to Him. They say it to 'feel' religious so they can experience another level of delusion of goodness and their hearts are far removed from the truth.

15 Woe unto them that seek deep to hide their counsel from the LORD, and their works are in the dark, and they say, Who seeth us? and who knoweth us? 16 Surely your turning of things upside down shall be esteemed as the potter's clay: for shall the work say of him that made it, He made me not? or shall the thing framed say of him that framed it, He had no understanding?

Isaiah 29:15-16 (KJV)

We must each seek to know God as He really is and to not add or subtract from what He shows us or our names will be removed from the book of Life. Death comes to all who try to change the truth.

I can personally testify however that if you confess the truth and humble yourself that God will move your negative situation around and cause it to bless you. He is a professional lemonade maker! Scripture promises that all things will work out for good. Here it is:

28 And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to his purpose. Romans 8:28 (KJV)

Everything works out for the person who loves the Truth and the person who comes to it with God's purpose in His heart....and that is to obey it. God will simply use the situation to build the truth in your heart and all things that once would have hurt you simply become lessons.

All who are happy with religious lip service will get the answer to hear God say one day, "I don't know you" because guess what....He honestly never got to know you! You spent all your time trying to know yourself as something you were not. You spent your whole life seeking your own fake wonderful self. You struggled to be powerful, amazing, special, and worshiped. You 'loved' your fake ego self and then when you came before God and He just spoke the Truth that you hated and said, "sorry, but I don't know you. Go away." And all those games you played will amount to nothing! All those hours and hours of getting offended and pretending you were really something will all have been spent for naught! Giving yourself titles and great airs will have been nothing but a waste of time and breath. Is that where you want to be? Is that who you want to be? I hope not!

Get right with God today. Fall flat on your face and slap your self in the head and say, "wretched man that I am! Dear God help me!"

Start today by seeing the games you are playing. Take a long hard look at the 'real' fruit on your ugly little stumped tree and honestly seek the Lord to make your tree be a little more presentable. Perhaps you even need a new tree!

God is no respecter of persons. He is just like math. Two plus two equals four no matter who adds it up. He is the same way and all our antics won't change the answer. We have to face the truth and fess up! We have to long and seek to know things as the really are. We have to be lovers of Truth! We have to stop the games, stop the hypocrisy, and realize that only those who obey God are His and everyone who obeys God is pleasing to Him.

Anger isn't a fruit of the Holy Spirit. Pouting isn't a fruit of the Holy Spirit. Being selfish, unkind, rude, impatient, and arrogant isn't a 'fruit of the Holy Spirit'. Seeing yourself as an 'amazing' Christian isn't a fruit of the Holy Spirit. Feeling sorry for yourself isn't a fruit of the Holy Spirit. Being sick is also not from the Holy Spirit. All these things are because we are entertaining other spirits. We are seeking their faces, listening to their lies because we like the way they talk better than the way the Holy Spirit talks! Who are we kidding?! All who don't follow God aren't going to go to be with Him!

All who aren't listening to the Truth are listening to devils. They are loving devils. What do you think our Husband is going to have to say to such harlotry? What do you think the King of Kings is going to have to say to those who refuse to acknowledge Him? Spitting on the face of God is probably not going to go unnoticed and when we send ourselves to hell because we hate God, who is the Truth, we deserve the fate we receive. Especially those who read the Word of God most of their lives. What excuse will they have for not hearing it but instead chose to use it to further their own prideful ambitions? They sought places of great honor, names, and positions. They used it to get money, honor, and recognition. They forgot God! They held Him in their hands and used Him like a tool to get what their flesh lusted after. What do you suppose their fate is going to be and do you honestly want to be found in those shoes?

God forbid anyone should ride that horse to the end of its destination. God forbid that you who are reading this would follow in those footsteps. If you really want unison with God you have to 'unify' with the Truth in your heart and how are we going to do this if we don't honestly love the Truth? It will never happen! Cry out to God and ask Him to move your heart to love the Truth. Cry out to God and ask Him to reveal the truth to your soul! Don't waste another day. Don't end up like the old man who couldn't let go, who died in his sin and went to hell. Don't be afraid to face the truth. If you face it you will be healed. You will feel the joy of the Lord and the peace of God in your heart. The momentary pain of seeing the Truth is soon forgotten as you enter into heaven's gates within you. Heaven can be experienced now! True peace and joy is meant to be yours. God intended for you to live there.

I urge all who read this to be serious in your search of heaven. I plead with mankind and say, "be diligent!" Ever pursue the truth with a hungry heart. Do not let this life pass without finding Him for if you do the tears will not heal what has happened to you nor change your destination. Do not take your salvation lightly, trust it to an infidel, or some fake religious preacher who lives to line his wallet and does so by telling you the lies you want to hear. Do not seek to 'know yourself' as truth. Seek to know the truth and to follow it no matter the cost to your flesh. Your flesh is headed for the grave if you live for it, what will become of you? Give your life to God now while you can and beg Him to forgive you and help you to understand the truth so you can follow it.

What fruits are on your tree? Are they the kind that you want Jesus to see? They will be for all mankind to behold. What kind of tree are you?

19 Every tree that bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire. 20 Wherefore by their fruits ye shall know them.

Matt 7:19-20 (KJV)

9 And this I pray, that your love may abound yet more and more in knowledge and in all judgment; 10 That ye may approve things that are excellent; that ye may be sincere and without offence till the day of Christ; 11 Being filled with the fruits of righteousness, which are by Jesus Christ, unto the glory and praise of God

Phil 1:9-11 (KJV)

13 Who is a wise man and endued with knowledge among you? let him shew out of a good conversation his works with meekness of wisdom. 14 But if ye have bitter envying and strife in your hearts, glory not, and lie not against the truth. 15 This wisdom descendeth not from above, but is earthly, sensual, devilish. 16 For where envying and strife is, there is confusion and every evil work. 17 But the wisdom that is from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, and easy to be intreated, full of mercy and good fruits, without partiality, and without hypocrisy. 18 And the fruit of righteousness is sown in peace of them that make peace.
