

How to Preach for the Devil and promote the Kingdom of Hell

by
Sharon L. Flesher

There are only two kingdoms to increase. You are either preaching the kingdom of God or the kingdom of the devil. In fact, all that you do, say, or believe, glorify one or the other. Every act, every thought, every deed, goes forth to enforce or support either good or evil.

If you wish to preach for the devil, I'm going to tell you how to do it. Why? I think you might be surprised that many people don't realise 'whose' gospel they are preaching. Perhaps when you see the truth, you will think twice about all you say and do and will see clearly what others are 'saying' and 'doing' towards you, even in God's holy name. There are consequences for following other gospels, horrible ones! It would behoove us to know and recognize when we or others are doing this.

People seem to be under the delusion that words only are used in preaching, this is not so and may I remind you that a picture is worth a thousand words. Whatever you do is like 20 sermons put together on a p.a. system the size of Montana being screamed into everyone's ears....okay? Remember this? Everything you do and say will be used against you in a court of law? Both count! God is recording you!

When you do things or say things, it is the same as if you took out a large stamp with your name on it and gave it a gigantic seal of approval for God and the world to see. Unless your participation was against your will and someone forced you to, had a gun to your head or the like, you cannot blame it on anyone else, it belongs to you; you did it, you okayed it, you preached it!

There are no words louder than actions. Anyone who speaks one thing, but does the other, the actions always speak louder, why? We choose to follow what we believe and we do that which we okay. It is a showing of who we believe in! Whomever we follow is our god! Obeying the voices in our head that aren't him is not a good thing. You may repent afterwards, but if you are truly sorry, your actions will also show it afterwards. And God in His mercy has given us plenty of grace for mistakes.

However, just talking with smooth religious words to others, or yourself is not anything more than the evidence of a guilty conscience if your actions don't follow suit. If I said, "I don't hit people and then I promptly smacked you, "which one do you believe?" This is why people will be rewarded according to their works; separating the sheep from the goats.

Matt. 16:27 For the Son of man shall come in the glory of his Father with his angels; and then he shall reward every man according to his works.

The Kingdom of Hell

Just how do you go about being the most effective minister of hell? How do you destroy that which God made and send it into eternal damnation? We are about to find out! You will know how to promote satan and all that he is and spend eternity with him! Isn't that great! So let's jump right in and see just how you go about destroying the works of God's hand?

This is what it is all about, being a preacher of hell! Those who choose this path of life will be able to look forward to their own life filled with all the evil fruits they offer to others, pain, torment, anger, death and separation from all that is good, and don't forget it all ends with a grand finale of eternal pain, torment, and agony. A just reward for all who love and play with fire, of course, is to get burnt. So let's get started! Let's find out just how good you are at preaching the kingdom of hell!

Top 10 most important aspects of the kingdom of hell and the best ways to support it.....

1. Keep people and yourself from repenting! Tell them that everyone does bad things...and that no one must really repent of sin. You must teach everyone to love their sin, to cling to it, and not see it, or to excuse it. With repentance comes remission of sins, this will save yourself from hell and other people too!.....So.....Don't let them see their wrong doings! Give them excuses, agree with their justifications of their sins, feel sorry for them, soothe them. Besides, if they excuse their sin, they won't be able to say a word about yours! Double reward for you!

Always encourage sinning! Everybody does it! Show everyone how you do it and are fine with it. Live like it just doesn't matter, that there is no bad reward for sinners. Live everyday like there is no such thing as 'wrong' or 'right' but only "your way".

When a demon is in a person from childhood, that child can become fond of the demons ways. Make sure you encourage them grow with those ways....call them quirks or something cute like that! Let them look at evil with endearing eyes. Teach them to cleave to their sins by approving of them.

2. Make people angry! If you can install anger in their hearts you have thwarted the kingdom of hells biggest enemy, love. Love will destroy the kingdom of hell. It is toxic! Focus on your anger. Breed it into everyone around you!

Here are some tips on how to do that....Repeat all the bad things that happened in your day, in your life, and in other people's lives. The hurt, the pain, the sorrows...Keep them alive and don't let them die! It is paramount to the kingdom of hell.

Anger plays such an important role in kingdom of hell. To be an effective minister you must try and stir it up by being unjust and unreasonable to others. Speak harshly and judgementally and look for everyone's faults. These are sore spots that are sure to get you a response. Also, refuse to see your own faults and point at theirs, this works really good, especially on sensitive areas where they are self conscious.

Another helpful tip is to try doing everything to promote yourself. Feel free to mock others. This seems to anger others quite well and then criticise them as often as you like. It will make you feel more important too and give you some selfish gratification! Another reward for you!

3. Don't encourage forgiveness! Rule #3 is very important. If you forgive someone, they might respond in like manner, you simply cannot afford that to happen. To preach hell properly to someone, you must encourage them not to forgive anyone, but to hate themselves and others forever! Hate is very important! Don't let forgiveness spoil it for you. Agree with them quickly in the wrongs and hurt that they feel. Help them justify their own hate so they won't let go. Encourage them to feel it more by reliving it with them and feel free to adlib and embellish the incidents in question and liven it up with any juicy details that you might have or make up.

4. Selfishness must be encouraged. You do this by being selfish yourself. The best example is always your own behaviour. Always excuse your ability to give or help by all that you don't have. Make it their own fault that they don't have as much as you and don't show any signs of caring.

One way to do this is to make your life sound really bad or to express your sorrow for all the things you don't have. This will make them feel sorry for you and in doing so, they will excuse the sin of selfishness and possibly entertain it themselves. This works well in large groups too. Whole communities and even nations can get into this. So encourage people to look out for themselves first. Tell them it is a survival instinct and excuse giving and kindness as something only really really good people do, but it is out of reach for them.

Help them put themselves first. Encourage others to really adore and love their sinful natures. After all, it is who they really are without God anyways. If you have to, let them give a little bit, just to soothe them, but don't let them get radical! Giving is dangerous business it carries blessings from God and can destroy everything the kingdom of hell stands for!

5. Encourage people to love money. This is very important. In everything you do let people that don't have as much as you know that one day, if they were lucky, they could have what you do too! This will encourage them to seek it even more and make them believe it will make them happy. Let people see you gratifying yourself with things, swim in your belongings, bask in the glory of your possessions, let them know that one day they too, with hard labor and lots of luck, might be just like you!

This will deceive their hearts into believing that money will make them happy and keep them wasting their lives away! Or you can take the opposite approach! It is quite clever and works really well. Squander it in front of their hungry eyes! They will hate you for it! Go, do, and be things they only wish they could! This will build hate and selfishness and greed in others. Three very prominent aspects of the kingdom of hell. Why, in no time they will be selling their grandmothers for a buck! If you push the element of greed and money all kinds of evil will spring up and multiply!

6. Fulfillment through others. This is one of the oldest tricks in the book. To preach it effectively you need to understand that people need a thing called 'love' or 'complete understanding'. It is something from God, so we won't cover it here, but what we will show you is how to use that need to ruin someone's life! First, convince that person that without a 'soul mate' they will be lonely forever. Make them think that they are only 'half' of a person and that the 'other half' is out there somewhere in the billions of people wandering the earth! This is great fun and is quite sporting! Encourage them to date, get married, and try people on like clothes! You will get them to sin against their own bodies by doing this they will never find what they are looking for in the world, because it doesn't exist out there and is only a commodity of heaven! What a blast! Some will even give up and kill themselves, so congratulations, you've just saved another person from heaven!

7. Lying. As a minister of hell and preacher of hell it is very important to show others that it is okay to lie. It is directly opposed to God, so one must teach it cleverly. First, show people that there are 'levels' of lying. I'll give you an example. There are white lies which are harmless. For instance, when someone asks how they look and they look awful, you say, "you look great!". It is a white lie, clean, in other words. Teach them that there are 'clean' lies. Lies that everybody tells. This will make them comfortable with that sin and they can function in it without their conscience getting in the way.

Teach people the 'game of lies'. Pretty soon they'll tell them just for the fun of it to see what they can get away with. Show them how good it feels to make someone believe you, the control that you feel when they hang of your every lying word.

Show people how lying can get them what they want. If you tell someone what they want to hear that person will do things for those lies. Find out what that person wants to hear and give it to them on a silver platter, they will be eating out of your hand in no time! What sport!

8. A minister of death must teach complaining. Complaining is the best way you can let God know that He is unappreciated and not worth too much to you. Complaining is the baby step to getting people to curse God. It all starts here! So this is very important if you want to save people from heaven. You can kick start someone by complaining yourself. Show them it is okay. Start your own gripe session and watch them jump in. Then, encourage them with some pity and help them along! They'll be unthankful for what God has given them and cursing God in no time.

9. Boosting pride. Pride is a weakness that few can resist. Everyone wants to be great and awesome. Here's what you do. Brag about them, boast and lift them up! Just watch the happy little fools believe it! The goal is to get them to adore themselves. Show them how smart they are, how pretty, how good they are, whatever it takes! Make them believe that others would die to be just like them and that they are irreplaceable! Compliment! Compliment! Compliment! Keep pouring it on! Words like "you can do it!" "be your own man" "you are worth it". Get people to see that it is a good thing to 'build your self esteem' and 'make your own way in the world.'

Remember this slogan....it is tried and true! Pride: It's the start of every good fall!

10. Last but not least is the subject of guilt tripping. This works great to create anger and anguish in another person's life. To properly preach this by your actions you must discover what they don't want to do and then make them feel bad for it. Make them feel like they can almost, but not quite please you. Make them feel like if they were just a little bit more thoughtful, a little bit better, you might accept their persons. Always keep it out of their reach but within sight.

When you have to do something for them, let them know just how much it cost you. Make sure that some things you do you consider priceless and it can never be repaid.

Sometimes, once you see you've managed to make someone feel awful, relinquish their guilt and reward them slightly, this will enhance your control over them and they will jump to relieve their guilt the next time you need to use them.

Summary

Remember, never promote good, never really love or care for anyone but yourself, always let people know how important you are, and don't forget to make them feel bad at every chance you get. Keep anger and hate alive in others by being unjust, selfish, and cruel and don't speak good of anyone, unless of course you are building up their egos for that wonderful fall.

Always be wise to others weaknesses, here will be your greatest achievements! Take careful notice of these areas and focus on destroying any sign of good with immediate disdain and overlook every bit of good that comes from those people too! Don't let them trick you! If you start to reciprocate good it will destroy all the evil in your heart and theirs. The goal is to keep the evil alive! Practice, practice, practice!

Promote evil! Make devils your friends! It is a wide road to hell so come on, there's plenty of room!

"Don't repent!" The kingdom of hell is near you!
